COURIER NEEDS HELP

The Shelton State COURIER needs students interested in writing, layout, and photography. This experience can be fun as well as valuable experience. Writers will be paid a nominal amount for their stories. The summer issue will be a forum for the work and ideas of Shelton students. Letters to the editor will also be accepted. Artists are also needed. If you are interested in working in any or all of these areas, leave a message at Dean Lee's office or come by the journalism class, Tuesday and Friday, 10 a.m. - 12 noon. Paul Clark is editor.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Little Miss Firecracker will have as part of her prize a ride on the Alabama State Fire College firetruck! How's that for a prize for a little girl.

According to Northport fire chief J. H. McQueen, the Fire College provides a valuable service to volunteer and career-oriented firefighters. "Their continuing education programs and expertise they offer is a great asset. They come to us which is also a big plus," said McQueen.

YOUR MONEY MATTERS

Shelton State Community College will offer a six-week seminar this summer on financial planning designed for the novice as well as the experienced financial investor. Stocks and bonds, tax shelters, money market funds will all be covered in an interesting and easy to understand manner.

The course will be taught on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 - 9 p.m., beginning July 18 and continuing through August 24. Instructor for the course is Winston Way, investment braker for Thomson McKinnon Securities, Inc., Birmingham. Way is a graduate of the University of Alabama, B.A. 1973, and Michigan State University of Vienna in 1971.

Topics scheduled to be covered in the seminar include financial prerequisites, life insurance, bonds, stocks, mutual funds, tax shelters, real estate, oil and gas partnerships, commodity futures, livestock limited partnerships, stock and currency options, tax deferred annuities, inflation and other areas of professional planning.

Total cost for the program is $35 and enrollment is limited. For more information or to register for the course, contact Bruce Bizzoco at the junior college.
